Overlook Ridge Development Launches Unified Multi-Business Organization

LITTLE FALLS, N.Y. — Overlook Ridge LLC announced the launch of a unified organizational structure that brings together its portfolio of businesses, community initiatives and leadership-focused ventures under one cohesive identity grounded in community connection, leadership, and workforce development.

Founded in 1998, Overlook Ridge Development is built on the belief that effective leadership development must be grounded in real-world practice. The organization operates businesses across multiple sectors while applying the same leadership principles it teaches through hands-on experience.

“Our mission is to strengthen people, organizations, and communities by developing leaders who are equipped to create lasting impact,” said David Casullo, CEO and founder of Overlook Ridge. “By living the work we teach, we remain deeply connected to the realities leaders face every day.”

Workforce development is a central focus of Overlook Ridge Development. Through leadership programs, hands-on learning opportunities and community-driven initiatives, the organization supports individuals and organizations in building the skills and leadership capacity needed in today’s evolving economy.
